

Janette Galbraith

Personal Celebrant

Celebrating Life

At a time of bereavement the practicalities of planning and managing a funeral are sometimes simply too painful and too much to deal with.

Offering personal assistance, Janette will provide you with a bespoke, unique, service with an appropriate and memorable tribute during this opportunity to celebrate and remember your loved one's life.

If you would like help with enacting your wishes during this difficult time, please call to arrange a personal visit to learn how you would like the ceremony to be conducted.
